

Rajbhasha workshop, blood donation camp organised at Central Govt offices

■ Staff Reporter

RAIPUR, June 14

A JOINT Hindi Rajbhasha workshop was organised under the aegis of the City Official Language Implementation Committee (NARAKAS) at Rajiv Gandhi National Groundwater Training and Research Institute, Raipur on Friday. More than 30 officials from 6 offices mainly Nehru Yuva Kendra Sangathan, Rajiv Gandhi National Groundwater Training and Research Institute, Bureau of Civil Aviation, MSTC, Central Integrated Pesticide Management Center and Inter State Police Wireless Center participated in this workshop.

While presiding over the workshop, Regional Director of Rajiv Gandhi National Ground Water Training and Research Institute Nidhish Verma said that Chhattisgarh state falls in Hindi speaking region, thus, it is imperative to promote the Rajbhasha Hindi and enhance the working capacity of the officials. He further said that such workshops establish cooperation, coordination and unity in the workplace.

In his address, Assistant

Director of Rajiv Gandhi National Groundwater Training and Research Institute Nidhish Verma administering blood donor oath to the officers.

Director and Head of Central Integrated Pesticide Management Center Neeraj Kumar Singh said that Hindi language is very important and useful for a state like Chhattisgarh. All the documents of the office are made in Hindi language which is greatly benefiting the common people. He further said that such Hindi Rajbhasha workshops assist us in improving our day to day activities.

Assistant Director of Rajiv Gandhi National Ground Water Training and Research Institute Gopal Prasad discussed the intricacies of writing official report and noting as well as drafting specially in Hindi.

Sharinh his views, Translation Officer of Central

Bureau of Investigation Abhishek Prakash apprised about Kanthastha 2.0, a translation tool of the Department of Official Language, Ministry of Home Affairs, Government of India.

The programme was followed by a blood donation camp was organised by Nehru Yuva Kendra in collaboration with Rajiv Gandhi National Groundwater Training and Research Institute on the occasion of World Blood Donor Day.

More than 25 officers successfully donated blood. Regional Director of Rajiv Gandhi National Groundwater Training and Research Institute Nidhish Verma administered the blood donor oath to all the officers.